

PARENT BRAG SHEET

The reason we have instituted this form is to help make sure important information is not overlooked when your child's college recommendation letter is written. Colleges consider more than just a student's grade point average and test scores. Sometimes students feel uncomfortable telling us about strengths or problems. Unusual circumstances can include family crises, health problems, outstanding skills/talents, or any factor, which could have affected the individual performance of the student. We do not view this as bragging or rationalizing. This information can make a difference in college admissions. Please use a separate sheet if necessary for your answers. If you would like, you may return the answers to these questions to your child's counselor in a sealed envelope labeled confidential. Thank you.

Name of Student: _____

Parent Name: _____ Parent E-mail: _____

What do you consider to be the most outstanding accomplishment(s) of your senior during high school?

Why did you select these as most important? _____

In what areas has your senior shown the most development and growth during high school?

What do you consider to be the most outstanding personality trait of your senior? Why? (Anecdotes or examples are very helpful.) _____

Continued on Back

What are 3 (or more) words or phrases that describe your senior? _____

Have any unusual circumstances or experiences affected your senior's education? _____

Is there any additional information you would like us to know? _____
